

Dear Court Clerk

I am writing this letter to your office to add another defendant to the civil action. That defendant is the Department of Corrections of the District of Columbia Government. They are at fault also in the civil action. I am also asking for damages and punitive damages. I am asking for a $1,000 dollars times 7 days and $500 dollars times 7 day. A total of $10,500 plus punitive damages of $3,500. I don't know what address I am suppose to use as the address of the Department of Correction. But as an alternative I will provide the building address of 1901 Dst S.E Wash. D.C. 20003. I hope that the court will be able to provide the necessary address. Thank you for your help in the matter.
